Insights for the Proposed New Original Movie Studio

By: Dominic Muthiani Mul

Research Question and objective

Microsoft plans to venture into original video content creation. The head of Microsoft's proposed movie studio wants to know what genres of films are currently performing best at the box office.

Poject Objectives

- 1. Identify the best performing movie genres at the box office.
- 2. Generate recommendations for the types of films that Microsoft's proposed movie studio should create.

Data Sources

- 1.bom.movie_gross.csv dataset from Box Office Mojo
- 2. title.basics.csv dataset from IMDB
- 3. title.ratings.csv dataset from IMDB

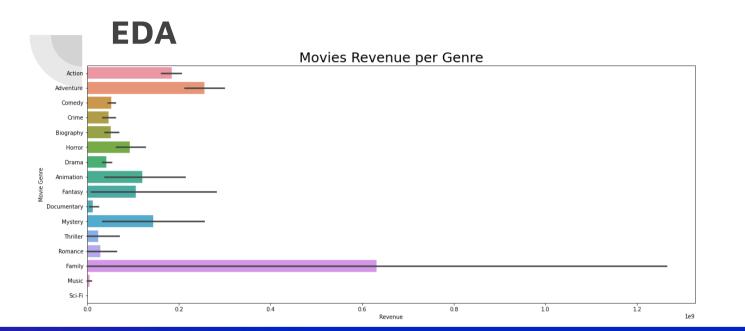

The period between 2014 and 2016 witnessed the highest number of movie releases, with 2016 recording the peak. This indicates a potential trend of increased production during these years.

Action movies were the most frequently released genre, followed by Comedy and Drama. It shows that the audience's preference leaned towards actionoriented content during this period.

Family genre movies generated the highest revenue, followed by adventure, with Action movies coming in third. This suggests that family-oriented and adventurous films tend to perform well financially

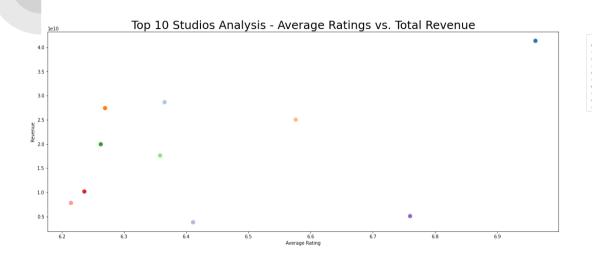

Sci-Fi -

The adventure genre consistently earned more revenue over the years, indicating a sustained popularity of adventurous themes among the audience.
